Preparing Online Instructors

- Summer 2022

This four-week workshop is designed to help faculty prepare to meet the challenges and embrace the opportunities of online teaching. This workshop is facilitated by Kushal Jha with the purpose of providing faculty with the knowledge and skills necessary to effectively teach in an online environment. Structured as a fully online offering, participants can expect to work both independently and as part of a cohort to investigate:

- Approaches that promote student engagement
- Standards to design online course
- Technologies that facilitate online learning
- Strategies for creating effective assessments
- Methods that enhance student interaction
- Meaningful approaches to assessment

Textbook:

There is no required text for this workshop. Course materials will consist of online lecture videos and journal articles you can access from the OSU library.

Course Dates:

June 20, 2022 - July 17, 2022

Participants can expect to invest 5 to 7 hours per week on the readings, discussions, and assignments required for successful completion of this course
