

Support student success with this free, 90-minute in-person workshop for graduate teaching assistants. Learn how to conduct effective review sessions, foster study groups, reduce test anxiety, and support struggling students. Equip yourself with practical strategies to enhance exam preparation and create a supportive learning environment.