

INSTITUTE FOR TEACHING AND LEARNING EXCELLENCE

WELCOME BACK!

We hope you had a restful summer. As you gear up for the new semester, we're here to support you with tools, resources and fresh ideas to help you start strong.

CREATING YOUR COURSE SYLLABUS

A well-crafted syllabus creates a strong first impression, communicates what students should expect to know and be able to do upon course completion, and serves as a guide, or road map, of how the journey will progress. ITLE has resources to support you in creating a learner-centered syllabus.

Syllabus Resources

DEVELOPING A TEACHING PERSONA: YOUR FIRST DAY OF CLASS

The first day of class sets the tone for the rest of the semester. This video encourages you to approach that day with intention, balancing professionalism with warmth, to help establish a strong foundation for learning.

Learn more

JUMPSTART YOUR SEMESTER WITH ONLINE COURSE TEMPLATES

Get a head start on the semester with two updated resources designed to streamline your

READY TO ELEVATE YOUR ONLINE COURSE DESIGN?

Online Teaching 101: Foundations is a two-semester, instructor-supported, asynchronous course designed for