1. FOCUS ON TEACHING: IN-CLASS PROBLEMS

Dr. Seokjhin Kim explains how in-class problems benefit student learning.

2. ITLE'S ONLINE INSTRUCTORS LEARNING COMMUNITY

We invite all online/hybrid instructors to join ITLE's Online Instructor Tips and Tools Community. Each week, a new tip or tool will be released detailing resources designed to enrich the quality of online courses. This Community will also provide a space for instructors to ask and answer questions concerning best practices in online instruction. Click the link below or scan the QR code with your phone's camera to join in on the discussion!

3. THE "TESTING EFFECT"

The "testing effect" is the phenomenon where taking a quiz can enhance later retention of studied materials. Canvas Quiz Features can enhance learning via the testing effect. Take a look at this week's Module in ITLE'S Online Instructor Tips and Tools Community, link and QR code above, to learn more about incorporating this practice into your online courses.

4. OSU FACULTY READS SERIES

DIVERSITY EDITION

This semester we are anchoring our conversations in several titles meant to feed our teaching souls. We will begin with Radical Hope, which encourages us to remember the emancipatory and hopeful nature of teaching in higher ed. This begins February 2023

5. SPRING 2023 DATA BYTES WORKSHOPS

Data Bytes is a virtual series open to all OSU faculty and students, exploring digital resources, tools, software and methods for improving your research processes. Upcoming topics include EndNote, data management, ChatGPT and more.

Register for a workshop in order to receive the Zoom link. Attendance can be used towards the Graduate College 360 Critical Skills for Career Success program as approved by the OSU Graduate College.

6. LEARNING MORE ABOUT CANVAS

We have many resources available for faculty to learn more about Canvas. Whether you are just starting here at OSU or are a seasoned pro, there is sure to be something to expand your Canvas knowledge!
