Supporting faculty in the creation and development of high-impact learning opportunities

Beginning a New Semester

Spring 2021 Graduate Teaching Assistant One-Day Conference on Teaching: Teaching Effectively during a Pandemic

The materials for the conference will be posted on Canvas by session and presenter as we get closer to the date. During the discussion sessions, you will be able to have deeper dialogue on the material with the presenter and other interested instructors. An agenda with all the details will be available in the Canvas portal.

PREPARING IN CANVAS

Below is a list of the most useful tutorial videos for getting your Canvas course site read for the next semester.

Importing from another Canvas Course

Watch the Video

Content can be imported into a Canvas course directly from other Canvas courses, which is very useful when re-using content from one semester to another. The same process can be used when copying content from a Sandbox or Test environment into an actual course.

Setting a Custom Dashboard Image

Watch the Video

Canvas lets instructors customize the dashboard images of courses by using header images. These can be a useful way of distinguishing courses from each other and providing visual cues as to the type of content contained within a course.

Adding TAs to Your Course

More Canvas Tips

Self-Paced Online Teaching Workshop

This self-paced online teaching workshop covers a variety of topics such as outcome-oriented course design, engaging online learners, creating an online activity and assessment plan and more. Whether you are new to online teaching or need a refresher, this course is designed to meet your needs in a flexible format. While working through modules in the workshop, participants will create an Online Learning Assessment Portfolio, which will be submitted to the instructor upon completion of the final module. After receiving your portfolio, the instructor will set up a time to discuss your experience in the workshop with a one-on-one video conference.

To sign up, contact Elaine Johns at itleevents@okstate.edu. You will be asked to provide your CWID so we can add you to the course.
